Lolli Denton: 2020 Inductee

Getting the most from your extension at the walk, trot, lope.

Laurel started at an early age riding Quarter Horses. She competed at the AQHA and AQHYA World Championship Shows winning numerous state titles and making several AQHA champions. She captured her first AQHA World Champion at twenty-one and has spent her entire life on the back of a Quarter Horse. Always attuned to the best interests of the horse, her career spans over five decades with over 3,500 AQHA points in thirteen different events.

Laurel has judged all of the AQHA World Shows – Open, Amateur, Select, and Youth. She is an NRCHA judge as well.

Al Dunning: 2016 Inductee

Improving Ranch riding maneuvers including spins, stops, back & side pass

One of the most respected horsemen in the industry, Al has received multiple honors including American Quarter Horse Association's Professional Horseman of the Year in 1996, NCHA Zane Schulte Trainer of the Year award in 2003, Monte Roberts Equitarian award in 2004, Western Horseman Magazine's Western Horseman Award in 2017. Al is an EquiStat Elite Million Dollar Winner and an NCHA Million Dollar Rider.

Al and his students have garnered 48 World and Reserve World titles in NCHA, AQHA, NRCHA, and NRHA.”
